There has been much controversy of late over Ronald Reagan state of health when he was president. Reagan’s sons, Michael and Ron have both written book about their father; both books contradict each other as to Reagan’s degree of Alzheimer’s during his 1981-1989 presidential reign.

Frequency Domain Vocal Prints of Reagan from 1961 show high levels of Amyloid Beta A-4 Proteins and other biomarkers implicated with Alzheimer’s. Copper metabolism was also involved.

This YouTube video has over a million views so far. I expect it to be banned from public viewing soon. Although this presentation by Reagan was recorded nearly 50 years ago, there are many points that are pertinent to today’s controversy over the loss of personal health freedoms.

The entire argument outlined by Reagan is eye-opening but three points were particularly interesting:

a. Reagan warns of the “silent and gradual encroachment” on our personal freedoms. He describes exactly what has happened during the last year in America.

b. Regan makes the statement that the government is set up to take our tax money and finds ways to spend it. Our freedoms are in grave danger when the government decides what is best for us and then taxes us to fund what they think is appropriate.

c. Our Founding Fathers attempted to prevent the taxing or surrender of individual freedoms by limiting the reach of government into our private lives. The recently passed health care reform bill reaches deep in our pockets of personal liberty and destiny.
Operation Coffee Cup was a campaign conducted by the American Medical Association (AMA) during the late 1950s and early 1960s in opposition to the Democrats' plans to extend Social Security to include health insurance for the elderly, later known as Medicare. As part of the plan, doctors' wives would organize coffee meetings in an attempt to convince acquaintances to write letters to Congress opposing the program. The operation received support from Ronald Reagan, who in 1961 produced the LP record “Ronald Reagan Speaks Out Against Socialized Medicine” for the AMA, outlining arguments against what he called “socialize medicine.” This recording would be played at the coffee meetings in the hopes of informing the public to the dangers of government encroachment of personal liberties. Below is an evaluation of Reagan’s voice. Remember that Reagan is a trained actor and as such can express emotion and direct his audience with the use of words.

Ronald Reagan

Recording Date: 1961 – Reagan – Governor of California – 1967-1975: President – 1981-1989); (Born February 6, 1911 – died June 5, 2004 at the age of 93 from complications of Alzheimer’s). His burial site is inscribed with the words he delivered at the opening of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library: "I know in my heart that man is good, that what is right will always eventually triumph and that there is purpose and worth to each and every life.

After this BioAcoustic Personality Profile is a wave file of Reagan from 0161. Even then he was exhibiting frequencies associated with Alzheimer’s nearly 30 years before any symptoms manifested. The technology to look forward for any individual is possible now through BioAcoustic Biology.

Points of Importance, Attention and Consequence

You have a high degree of intuition when it comes to listening to what people are not saying. You have strong opinions about protecting others who don’t have the ability to protect themselves. You will come back again and again to a situation that is unsettled until you find an answer that satisfies you. It is distressing to you when someone is attempting to prove you wrong. You know when you have settled your mind about a situation because you no longer have a need to talk about it. Being without a reason/cause for an unsettling event can be disturbing and very mentally time consuming for you. You may appear to overestimate your own value to those around you because your self-approval is solid. When you think things through from an internal perspective, your philosophical opinions are very much appreciated. You challenge the opinions of others with good reason. You desire to have information confirmed. You tend to teach by intellectually adapting your behavior to be a good example for others. You have the ability to use words to persuade the minds of others. If you ever had to lie to see justice done, you would do it but your sense of justice does not always jive with the law. Using vocal expressions to misdirect a query is easy for you. You can use the high or low of your voice to give people direction as to how to treat you. You can convey a great variety of expressions using vocal nuance instead of words. Your highest note is associated with the expression of change of the body, mind and/or spirit.
